Tea at Five

A play in two acts by Matthew Lombardo

Tea at Five captures the fiery spirit of Katharine Hepburn in a show that recounts her journey from a well-heeled Yankee childhood to winner of four Oscars. Ensnared at her beloved Fenwick home, Ms. Hepburn reflects on the dizzying heights and emotional lows of her upbringing, her adventures in show business and her heartbreaking romance with Spencer Tracy. Audiences leave with new memories of one of the most dearly loved ladies of an era.

The Secret Lives of Henry & Alice

A comedy by David Tristram

For Henry Smith - actor, comedian, raconteur, sporting hero, leading socialite, business tycoon, secret agent, casanova and acting President of the United States - life was rarely dull. For Alice Smith - housewife - life was rarely anything else.

Enter Michel - French waiter - tall, dark, and available. Exactly what happened next, no-one's quite sure. Except that it involved a rotting melon, a deckchair and a bottle of neck-rub. Fantasy blurs into reality. Secret passions explode. And two worlds which seemed a million miles apart are suddenly on a collision course.

It could only happen to Henry & Alice. And only their pet goldfish, Orca, and you, will ever know the true story.

Adventures in Mating

A comedy by Joseph Scrimshaw

Good evening and welcome to Café Surprise. On tonight's menu we've got an indecisive couple on a blind date, their waiter and you, dear audience. Play the role of cruel fate by deciding, what our couple cannot: red wine or white, stay or leave, kiss or slap? We have more than 90 variations up our sleeves but you determine which version of our play you are about to witness. We can promise one thing: you won't get to see the same show twice.
