SYNOPSIS

A brand-new play by playwright and performer Justin Elizabeth Sayre, who has been described by the New York press "Oscar Wilde meets Whoopi Goldberg" and been praised for his "deeply passionate soul and acerbic wit" and as one of the "Funniest People in Brooklyn".

THREE LITTLE GIRLS DOWN A WELL is a comedy for our time. Libby ran out of her ninth birthday party with two of her best friends, Marigold and Eleanor. They all fell down a well. In the Here and Now, quite some time later, we find them – they've all survived, but will they ever be saved, or must they continue a life underground? A comedy about today, towering doom, and the will to go on.

SPECIAL THANKS to the cast, crew and friends of the Keller Theatre for providing us with costumes and props; to Justin Elisabeth Sayre for providing this wonderful script; to Jo Hull Brisbane for the inspiration; to the cast & crew for supporting the process of this production coming together; to the friends and families for their support and patience and to all our helping hands front of house and behind the scenes, during rehearsals, before, during and after the shows.

DEDICATION

Marty and the entire Keller Theatre family dedicate this production to the memory of Margit Merek, who would have loved this play.

Associated with the Keller Theatre with her husband Peter since 1964, she continually inspired us as a dynamic and positive human being and as an extraordinary woman.

Margit - we will miss you!

AFTER-SHOW Q&A

Since this is the first production of THREE LITTLE GIRLS DOWN A WELL we invite you to a talkback-session after the play with the cast & crew of this production. We are interested in what your impressions are, what you take with you, and talk about all the little details that are (maybe hidden) in this rich and wonderful text.

COMING SOON

SCHMIDT HAPPENS - a very merry Keller Christmas

21, 22, 28, 29 November & 5, 6, 12 December 2025

tickets on sale from 17 October 2025

And so this is Christmas...

WHAT? AGAIN? ALREADY? Each year it seems to sneak around the corner faster than before, this "most wonderful time of the year". And everyone is striving to make it the best one ever! And so our little Keller troupe is trying to figure out what they could present to their audience this year. The list of options is long — or very short, depending on where you look at it. There are countless variations of Dickens' "Christmas Carol." Or a bucket full of kitschy to glitchy, well-intentioned heart warmers.

Is there no other way to let the Keller stars shine in winter? So, we're setting out together to find our own best Keller Christmas show. Warts and all. But who is this "Schmidt" everyone keeps warning us about...?

Come and see how the Keller finds Christmas and celebrate it together with us.

OPEN HELPERS' NIGHT

The Keller Theatre relies on members and volunteers to keep the tradition of community theatre going and we are always glad to have new people on board. We need not only actors, but also light and sound, hair and make-up, stage and props management, people working with costumes, set construction, directing, PR work, support on show nights and more.

Join us for our OPEN HELPERS' NIGHT on

Tue, 28 October 2025 or

Tue, 31 March 2026

6-9 PM, at the Kleine Bühne Gießen
